

Art Through the Ages True or False Quiz Answers

|   | True | False | Corrected Statement  |
|---|------|-------|--|
| The word Renaissance means 'rebirth'.   | ✓    |       |  |
| Renaissance artists were the first to study perspective and use it in their art.  | ✓    |       |  |
| Baroque came after Impressionism.   |      | ✓     | Baroque came after The Renaissance.  |
| Rembrandt was a Baroque style artist.   | ✓    |       |  |
| Baroque artists wanted to show life the way it really it was.   | ✓    |       |  |
| During the Baroque artistic era, not everyone could read, but they could understand pictures, so the church wanted plenty of paintings of biblical scenes that anyone could understand. | ✓    |       |  |
| The background of the painting wasn't important to Impressionists.  |      | ✓     | Impressionists began to place more importance on the background of the painting, which until now, hadn't been considered as important.     |
| The style was called Impressionism because the artists were not painting an exact realistic picture.  | ✓    |       |  |
| Impressionists used long brush strokes and applied paint thinly.  |      | ✓     | They used short brush strokes, applying paint thickly, to create the impression of a subject.  |
| The Art Nouveau style was applied to painting, sculpture, architecture, jewellery and furniture.  | ✓    |       |  |
| Colours were not considered important during the Fauvist movement.  |      | ✓     | Colours were seen as more important than the subject and were often exaggerated.   |
| Cubism is art created by only drawing or painting cubes.  |      | ✓     | Cubism involves painting figures that were made up of different shapes. Cubists wanted to show all sides of an object in the same picture. |
| Surrealists wanted to free their minds of thought and didn't want their work to make sense.   | ✓    |       |  |