

Date _____ Name _____

Art Through the Ages True or False Quiz

Tick the correct column then rewrite the correct statement if the answer is false.

	True	False	Corrected Statement
The word Renaissance means 'rebirth'.
Renaissance artists were the first to study perspective and use it in their art.
Baroque came after Impressionism.
Rembrandt was a Baroque style artist.
Baroque artists wanted to show life the way it really was.
During the Baroque artistic era, not everyone could read, but they could understand pictures, so the church wanted plenty of paintings of biblical scenes that anyone could understand.
The background of the painting wasn't important to Impressionists.
The style was called Impressionism because the artists were not painting an exact realistic picture.
Impressionists used long brush strokes and applied paint thinly.
The Art Nouveau style was applied to painting, sculpture, architecture, jewellery and furniture.
Colours were not considered important during the Fauvist movement.
Cubism is art created by only drawing or painting cubes.
Surrealists wanted to free their minds of thought and didn't want their work to make sense.			